

FORD AND HUGHES ON THE 8-HOUR DAY

The Testimony Of a Man Of Experience.

WHAT HENRY FORD HAS TO SAY

Compared With the Attitude Of Candidate Hughes On the Labor Question.

EASY TO SEE THE DIFFERENCE

The several Scripps-McRea independent papers of Ohio printed the following editorial:

"I say—and I speak from experience, not guesswork—that the eight-hour law will help business."

This is not the statement of a politician, campaigning for votes, or of a labor leader. It is the statement of Henry Ford, the most successful automobile manufacturer in the world and one of the biggest employers of labor in this country.

Three years ago Henry Ford reduced the hours of work in his factory to eight hours a day and fixed $5 a day as the minimum wage. He ought to know something about the effect of this action on his business. Henry Ford is one of THOUSANDS OF ENLIGHTENED BUSINESS MEN IN THIS COUNTRY WHO ARE OPERATING ON AN EIGHT-HOUR-A-DAY BASIS. We have not heard that there have been any failures due to an eight-hour day. On the contrary, there seems to be little doubt that the great majority of business men who are operating on an eight-hour day basis have had the same experience that Henry Ford says he had.

In view of this, can you imagine any sadder spectacle than that afforded by Candidate Hughes, who is going about the country attacking President Wilson and Congress because they prevented the railroad strike by passing an eight-hour law for railway trainmen?

Candidate Hughes approaches this question as he approaches every other question—as a technical lawyer, WITHOUT VISION AND ENTIRELY LACKING IN HUMAN SYMPATHY.

We are willing to give Hughes credit for intellectual honesty, but we submit that the country has a right to demand something bigger and better in its Presidents than mere intellectual honesty.

Every time that Candidate Hughes speaks he piles up the evidence that he is ENTIRELY LACKING in those qualities of mind and heart which President Wilson possesses in such generous measures.

As Governor of New York, Hughes vetoed the two-cent-a-mile railway fare bill, after half the States in the Union passed and enforced such a law.

As Governor of New York, Hughes vetoed a bill reducing the street car fare to Coney Island from ten cents to five cents, and by this veto made it harder for millions of common folk to enjoy the benefits of the seashore.

AS JUSTICE OF THAT SUPREME COURT, HUGHES INVARIABLY LINED UP WITH THOSE JUSTICES WHO PUT PROPERTY RIGHTS ABOVE HUMAN RIGHTS.

His attitude as Governor, as justice, as candidate has been perfectly consistent with his character.

In some way, that is beyond us to

IS IT YOUR KIDNEYS?

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is where the danger often lies. You should realize that these troubles often lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. An effective remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of this vicinity are constantly testifying.

Miss Vera Mullenix, Route 4, Madisonville, Ky., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills for disordered kidneys and a weak back, and got very satisfactory results. I know Doan's Kidney Pills do all they are represented to do, otherwise, I wouldn't give my name, recommending them publicly."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Mullenix had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

analyze, the illusion was created that Hughes was a forward-looking man. Undoubtedly there are some people who are still devoted to that illusion. But, unless we greatly miss our guess, the illusion is rapidly dissolving, and the "hundred-per-cent candidate" is being visioned by more and more people as he really is—PLUTOCRACY'S IDEAL CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.—[Elizabethtown News.]

RAILROAD POVERTY IS BECOMING VERY PLAIN

The net earnings of the principal railroads of the country increased only 26.6 per cent during the last fiscal year. The total net revenue of these roads was only $1,176,804,000, an increase over last year of only $305,969,000.

These are the railroads that are about to be ruined by an eight-hour day, which will add to their operating expenses $60,000,000 a year, according to the railroad presidents and $20,000,000 according to the brotherhood chiefs.

Taking the railroad figures as a basis, an eight-hour day would decrease the net revenue to a paltry $1,116,804,000, which in turn would be barely $245,969,000 in excess of the total net revenue of last year.

It ought to be plain enough to anybody that the railroads are sure to be ruined by an eight-hour day. No wonder they appealed to the unfortunate shippers to intervene and prevent the Government from pressing this crown of thorns upon the brow of Wall street. Such a picture of railroad poverty and destitution as the reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission present ought to furnish a new inspiration to the Hughes eloquence.—[New York World.]

We Know Her.

"That straggly-looking woman going by over there is our well known authoress!" triumphantly stated the village reporter to the visiting city newspaper man. "Her contributions are printed in the big newspapers all over the country. She is an old maid. Her name is Miss Clessaphine Clatter."

"Strange; but I do not remember having heard anything about her," said the visitor. "What does she write—poetry?"

"Nope; testimonials. She has been cured of most of all the ills that human flesh is ill to, as Shakespeare said."

Mark and the Office Boy.

One day Mark Twain went to see a friend at his office, and the office boy on guard informed in icy tones: "Whom do you want to see?"

Mark mentioned his friend's name.

"What do you want to see him about?" came next from the boy.

Mark Twain immediately froze up, and then, with a genial smile, he said:

"Tell him, please, I want to ask his hand in holy matrimony."

SORRY THAT HE'S JNO. D.'S BROTHER

Frank Rockefeller Refuses To "Make Up."

A FEUD OF NEARLY 20 YEARS

It Really Started in 1892 When a $140,000 Loan Was Negotiated.

CHURCH COULDN'T HOLD BOTH

Cleveland, Oct. 12.—Frank Rockefeller, the youngest of the three brothers, who was recently brought into prominence by William's effort to bring about a reconciliation between him and John D., is an interesting figure.

Although poor when compared to the other two Rockefellers, Frank is not by any means an object of charity. He abhors above all else to be spoken of as "John D. Rockefeller's brother."

William's effort to end the feud which has existed since 1898 failed and John D. and Frank are still as far apart as ever.

It is estimated that Jno. D. Rockefeller's wealth is $1,000,000,000. The sum involved which, it is alleged, led to the feud with his brother, was but $150,000.

The three brothers were in Cleveland simultaneously for the first time in many years, and William Rockefeller thought it was a most excellent opportunity to bring the family feud to a termination.

He did his part but the result was a complete failure. Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller drove in an automobile to the home of Frank Rockefeller, at Wickliffe. He was absent from home, but William Rockefeller talked with Mrs. Frank Rockefeller and was assured there was not a chance of bringing about a reconciliation.

Later Frank Rockefeller publicly confirmed the declaration of his wife and said:

"There never will be a reconciliation between John D. and myself. We had a row over business in 1898, and I said I was 'through.' I meant it then and I mean it now."

Frank Rockefeller is 70 years old. William Rockefeller is 75 and John D. Rockefeller is 77. Although not nearly so well known as his brothers, the first named was for many years associated with them in the oil business. He was one of the partners when the Standard Oil Company was organized and for a time was one of the vice presidents. He acquired considerable wealth, but after the quarrel he turned his attention to stock raising, purchasing 12,000 acres at Belvidere, Kan., for a stock farm. Attired like a farm hand, he was the real "boss" of the ranch and always did his part when there were ditches to be dug or fences to be built.

He always strove to avoid notoriety, and his boast was, "Next to my family I love animals more than anything else in the world, and by simply having fun with them I have found out a great many things and learned a good many lessons I never could have learned otherwise."

He makes his home in Cleveland five months of the year, as does John D. Rockefeller.

The beginning of the quarrel between the Rockefeller brothers is said to date back to 1892, when Frank Rockefeller and Capt. James Corrigan wished to develop the property of the Franklin Iron Mining Company, in the Mesaba Range. John D. Rockefeller, it is alleged, offered to advance the money and they borrowed $140,000 from him, giving their notes for $150,000. As security, Messrs. Corrigan and Rockefeller asserted that they gave to John D. Rockefeller the stock of the company. The property was developed and the partners were offered $1,800,000 for it, but refused to sell, believing it to be worth more.

Things, it is said, were running smoothly when John D. Rockefeller went to his brother and asked him to have Mr. Corrigan endorse the notes as a matter of form. Mr. Corrigan already was indebted to John D. Rockefeller for a large amount, for which the latter held collateral. When Mr. Corrigan tendered payment for his share of the loan and demanded his stock, it is alleged that John D. Rockefeller told him the stock would be held as security for the endorsement of Frank Rockefeller's notes.

Frank Rockefeller and Mr. Corrigan then made efforts to obtain money elsewhere to pay off John D. Rockefeller, and they asserted that they made arrangements with the Iron Range Company to obtain the money but John D. Rockefeller heard of it and at the last moment the Iron Range Company backed out. It is said that the officials of the company informed Frank Rockefeller that his brother had forbidden them to make the loan, and they knew his power too well to risk ruin by acting contrary to his orders. Finally Frank Rockefeller and Mr. Corrigan were compelled to sell the Franklin Iron Mining Company for $500,000 to prevent letting go of it for the $140,000 debt.

In 1900 the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, the "Rockefeller church," was almost broken up by the decree of John D. Rockefeller that the Rev. Dr. Applegarth must vacate the pulpit. Frank Rockefeller announced he would resign from the congregation if this action were taken. The trustees sided with John D. Rockefeller and Frank Rockefeller thereupon severed his connection with the church.

No Bank Failures In China.

Nine hundred years ago China had a bank failure. Hi Hung, ruler of the Celestial Empire at the time, investigated and discovered shady conduct on the part of the bank officials. He immediately issued an edict that the next time a bank went to the wall the heads of its President and Directors should be forfeited.

Since then there have been no bank failures in China. This method of dealing with frenzied finance may not be appealingly poetic, but it appears to have been indisputably effective.—[Sioux City Tribune.]

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Hooray For Mr. Johnson

Made Pork at Nearly 2c a Pound

By Feeding Liquid Stock Feed

Mr. Hugh L. Johnson, of Lewisport, Ky., writes that he produced pork this summer at nearly 2 cents per pound by feeding Glenmore Liquid Stock Feed. Here's his letter:

Glenmore Distilleries Co.,
Owensboro, Ky.

Gentlemen:—I have just completed the fattening of a bunch of hogs and obtained the following results with the use of your Liquid Stock Feed:

I had 65 hogs at the start and 88 hogs at the finish. The feeding period ran for 28 days, during which time I fed 25 pounds of corn per day and 100 barrels of Liquid Stock Feed, the corn costing $2.50 and the Liquid Stock Feed $21.00. On the entire lot of hogs I showed a total gain of 2135 pounds, or 32 pounds per day, making the 11 produced my pork at exactly $1.20 over 2c per pound.

Yours very truly,

HUGH L. JOHNSON.
